AN ABSTRACT EMPORIUM ART
COLORING BOOK

Welcome

TO YOUR HEALING JOURNEY

This coloring book is a sacred pause in your busy life.

Each line is an invitation to slow down.
Each color is a choice to come back to yourself.

There's no right or wrong way to color here.
Just your way.

Let the lines guide you.
Let the colors heal you.
Let this be your time.

HEALING THROUGH LINES

There's something ancient and true about lines.
They flow like water. They grow like branches.
They ripple like breath.

Lines are where nature and art meet—
the spiral of a shell, the veins of a leaf,
the rings of a tree recording years.

This coloring book invites you into that space:
where repetition becomes meditation,
where pattern becomes peace,
where your hand follows lines the way rivers follow the earth.

WHY LINES HEAL:

REPETITION CALMS THE MIND

Following the same line over and over gives your anxious mind a job—one that doesn't require problem-solving, just presence.

FLOW CREATES FOCUS

When you're tracing curves and spirals, you enter a state of gentle concentration—not forcing, not straining, just flowing.

PATTERN BUILDS TRUST

Each completed section proves: "I can do this. I can create order from chaos. One line at a time."

COLOR CONNECTS YOU TO NATURE

Choosing colors from earth, water, sunrise, and moonlight grounds you in something bigger, older, more stable than whatever you're carrying today.

You don't need to be artistic. You don't need to "do it right."
Just follow the lines. Let them guide you back to yourself.

Healing isn't always loud or dramatic. Sometimes it's as simple as this:
one color, one line, one breath.

Welcome to your practice.

NATURE'S HEALING PALETTES

Each palette connects you to a healing element of nature.
Choose based on what you need today.

FOREST THERAPY PALETTE For grounding, stability, and deep breaths.

Colors:

When to use:

- Feeling ungrounded or scattered
- Need to feel held by something stable
- Craving that "forest bathing" calm

OCEAN CALM PALETTE For release, flow, and letting go.

Colors:

When to use:

- Feeling stuck or rigid
- Need to release control
- Want to remember: tides change, nothing stays

SUNRISE HOPE PALETTE For new beginnings, gentle energy, and warmth.

Colors:

When to use:

- Starting something new
- Emerging from a dark period
- Need a reminder that morning always comes

MOONLIGHT PEACE PALETTE For rest, reflection, and nighttime calm.

Colors:

When to use:

- Need rest but can't quite settle
- Processing the day
- Want to honor the quieter, slower parts of yourself

MIX & LAYER:

Nature doesn't exist in isolated palettes—forests meet oceans, sunrise touches moonlight.

Let your colors blend and dramatize. Let the page become your ecosystem.

Trust what calls to you. Nature knows what you need.

4 MEDITATIVE PRACTICES

These aren't coloring techniques—they're mini-meditations.
Use them to deepen presence and find your flow.

1 PRACTICE 1: ONE-MINUTE MINDFULNESS

Arrive fully before you begin.

1. Sit with your blank page for one full minute
2. Don't start coloring yet—just observe
3. Notice the lines, curves, patterns
4. Notice your breath, your body, the room
5. Set an intention: "I'm here. This time is mine."

Why it helps:

We rush into everything.
This practice says:
"Before I create, I pause.
Before I do, I be."

2 PRACTICE 2: FLOW STATE COLORING

Follow the line like a river follows the earth.

1. Choose one continuous line to follow
2. Don't lift your tool—keep contact with paper
3. Let your hand flow along the curve
4. Match your breath to the movement
(Inhale on curves, exhale on straight lines)
5. If your mind wanders, gently return to the line

Why it helps:

This is moving meditation.
Your hand becomes the breath.
The line becomes the mantra.
You disappear into the flow.

3 PRACTICE 3: REPETITIVE HEALING

Let rhythm soothe your nervous system.

1. Choose one small shape or space
2. Use one color, one motion (circling, back-and-forth, dots)
3. Repeat the motion over and over and over
4. Count if it helps (100 circles, 200 strokes)
5. Let your mind go quiet as your hand works

Why it helps:

Anxiety interrupts rhythm.
This practice restores it.
Your hand remembers:
"I can do one thing, then another, then another. I can create pattern from chaos."

4 PRACTICE 4: INTENTIONAL STROKES

Make each color a conscious choice.

1. Before choosing a color, ask: "What does this section need?"
2. Hold the color tool for 5 breaths before applying
3. Make each stroke deliberate (not mindless)
4. Notice: Am I rushing? Can I slow down?
5. Finish each section before moving to the next

Why it helps:

We spend so much of life
on autopilot. This practice brings you back: "I am here.
I am choosing. I am creating."

You don't need to use all four practices. Try one. See how it feels.

Let it evolve into something that's yours.

HEALING WISDOM

Words to return to when you need them.

"Healing is not linear.
Some days you'll color with ease.
Some days your hand will shake.
Both days are part of the journey."

"Nature does not hurry, yet everything is accomplished."
— Lao Tzu

"Take your time.
The lines will wait.
They've been here before you,
and they'll be here after.
There is no rush in healing."

"You are allowed to be both a masterpiece and a work in progress simultaneously."
— Sophia Bush

"Every stroke you make
is a choice to show up.
That's not small.
That's everything."

"The cure for anything
is salt water—
sweat, tears, or the sea."
— Isak Dinesen

"Healing doesn't mean the damage never existed. It means the damage no longer controls your life."
— Unknown

"In every walk with nature,
one receives far more than he seeks."
— John Muir

Return to these words.
Let them meet you where you are.

CREATE YOUR RITUAL

Coloring becomes more healing when it's ritualized—when it's not just "filling time," but sacred time.
Here's how to create a practice that feels like medicine.

SET THE SPACE

Transform where you color into a sanctuary.

- Clear the surface (physical space — mental space)
- Light a candle
- Grab a blanket or sit somewhere cozy
- Put phone in another room (protect this time)
- Optional additions: Tea or water nearby
- Essential oils (lavender, eucalyptus, cedar)
- Soft lamp instead of harsh overhead light

CHOOSE YOUR SOUND

What helps you settle?

- Nature sounds (rain, ocean, forest)
- Instrumental music (lo-fi, classical, ambient)
- Binaural beats (theta waves)
- Complete silence (let the pencil be enough)
- Create a playlist called "Healing Lines" so you don't have to think—just press play.

HONOR YOUR TIME

Decide how long this ritual will be.

- Quick Reset: 10 minutes (one section of a page)
- Mindful Break: 30 minutes (half a page)
- Deep Practice: 1–2 hours (complete page — reflection)
- Set a gentle timer if needed. Or let yourself lose track of time—that's healing too.

EXPERIMENT WITH TOOLS

Different tools — different experiences.

- Colored pencils: Control, precision, layering
- Gel pens: Smooth flow, meditative glide
- Markers: Bold, unapologetic, decisive
- Watercolor pencils: Soft, blending, unpredictable
- Mixed media: Combine everything, experiment
- Try a new tool each week. Notice how it changes the experience.

RITUAL CLOSING (OPTIONAL)

When you finish coloring:

1. Take 3 deep breaths looking at your completed page
2. Notice how you feel now vs. when you started
3. Journal one sentence (or just one word): "Today I released..." "Today I received..."
4. Thank yourself for showing up

Then return to your day, carrying this calm with you.

Your ritual will evolve.

Some days it'll be elaborate (candles, tea, music). Some days it'll just be you and the page.

Both are sacred. Both are enough. ♥

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

This is your book. Use it however you need.

COLORING TOOLS

Works beautifully with:

- Colored pencils (best for layering and blending)
- Gel pens (smooth, meditative flow)
- Markers (bold, vibrant)
- Fine-liners (detailed line work)
- Watercolor pencils (soft, fluid)

Tip: Test your tools on a scrap page first.
Some markers bleed through thin paper.

COLORING APPROACH

Choose what feels right:

- SEQUENTIAL: Start at Page 1, work through to 50 (Creates a visual journey of your healing process)
- INTUITIVE: Flip through and pick what calls to you (Trust your instincts—some days need spirals, some need waves)
- THEMED: Group by nature palette (Forest week, Ocean week, Sunrise week, Moonlight week)
- REPETITIVE: Color the same page multiple times (Print unlimited copies! Watch how it changes)

TIME GUIDANCE

No rules. No pressure.

This book works for:

- 5-minute breathing breaks
- 30-minute meditation sessions
- 2-hour deep flow states
- Daily ritual practice
- Whenever you need grounding

Stop when you want.
Return when you're ready.

PRINTING TIPS

This is a DIGITAL DOWNLOAD.

You own it forever. Print as many times as you want.

For best results:

- Print on cardstock or thick paper (prevents bleed-through)
- Use "Actual Size" or "100%" print setting
- Recommended size: 8.5" x 11" (standard letter)
- Print in sections or all at once—your choice

Save your colored pages: Frame favorites, create a binder, photograph and share!

CARE FOR YOURSELF

This book is a healing tool, not therapy replacement.

If you're experiencing mental health crisis:

- US: Call or text 988 (Suicide & Crisis Lifeline)
- Text HOME to 741741 (Crisis Text Line)
- International: findahelpine.com

You deserve professional support.
This book can be part of your toolkit—not the only tool.
